

Course Content:

The Course is designed for participants interested in issues related to, inter alia, Science, Technology and Innovation (STI), global issues in S&T governance, and South-South Cooperation. This course will familiarise them with global S&T landscape, global environmental governance, international co-operation in S&T and Innovation, and, South-South Cooperation. The course includes specialised lecturers, case studies, group discussions and field (and cultural) visits. These will be complemented by background materials and texts. Course agenda will be provided before commencement of the programme. The following themes are covered under the Course:

- Concept and Practice of Science Diplomacy
- Modalities of Science Diplomacy at Bilateral, Regional and Multilateral Level
- STI, Development Challenges and SDGs
- South-South Cooperation and S&T and Innovation.

Two flagship good governance schemes of the government which would be highlighted:

- Digital India
- Healthcare Missions