

About the Programme:

NCGG is organizing the Capacity Building Programme for the Civil Servants of Bangladesh at NCGG Mussoorie, Uttarakhand (India) with the following objectives:

Programme Objectives:

At the end of the training Programme the officer trainees will be able to:

- Have an understanding of Indian Administrative and Governance Approaches.
- Gain an insight into the Indian Rural Development Approaches and Best Practices
- Gain an insight into the Indian Urban Development Policies and Programmes and learn from the best practices adopted.
- Have an understanding of various good e-governance experiences of India in various sectors.
- Learn from the Disaster Management Techniques and Approaches through Case Studies
- Have Exposure to Good Projects such as Metro Rail (Delhi) and other Urban Planning Projects.

Programme Design and Pedagogy

The Capacity Building Programme for Bangladesh Civil Servants combines on-campus training inputs at Mussoorie, followed by field visits in Uttarakhand, New Delhi and Haryana.

The on-campus training inputs would follow a modular approach covering the themes indicated below:

- Public policy & implementation
- Digital governance: Case studies of Passport Seva & MADAD
- Rejuvenation of rivers with special reference to Ganga
- Centralised public grievance redressal & monitoring system
- Health care facilities in remote areas
- Changing paradigm of governance
- Social innovation in education outcomes
- Rural Housing
- Project planning: execution and monitoring – Jal Jeevan Mission
- Election Management
- Fintech and inclusion: An Overview
- Public-private partnerships in infrastructure development
- Leadership, coordination and communication
- Swamitva: land record management
- Best practices from various development schemes
- Planning and building eco-friendly SMART cities – case studies
- Policy intervention to strengthen governance: Case Studies
- Gender & development: policies and practices
- Disaster management with special reference to coastal region
- Inter-personal awareness and skills

- Motivation for desired outcomes
- Aadhar: A tool of good governance
- Skill India Programme
- Overview of rural development in India
- Overview of All India Services(AIS)
- E-governance and digital India UMANG
- Overview of national security scenario
- Vigilance administration
- Anti-corruption strategies
- Investment promotion & entrepreneurship
- Approach to achieve Sustainable Development Goals by 2030
- Decentralized municipal solid waste management
- Circular Economy
- Approaches for inclusive Development
- Health governance in India

Classroom training inputs will be supplemented with group work, evaluation of case studies covering International and Indian experiences. The training methodology includes lectures, case studies, exercises, experience sharing presentations and field visits including interaction with practitioners.

Field Visits: Outside the classroom, activities will focus on field visits to important sites so that the participants get acquainted with history and culture of the country and also get to know of the latest technological and infrastructural developments in the country.

- a) Local Sight Seeing (You will be taken to important tourist destination and heritage points around the town)
- b) Visit to a district as part of the DM/SDM attachment to learn about the functioning and working of district and sub district administration
- c) Exposure visits to Indian Parliament/best projects in New Delhi(NCR)
- d) Heritage Visits: As part of the programme heritage visits will be organized for the officers in New Delhi and Agra.